PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitu ional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Sunday, February 16, 1868.

THE opponents of Radicalism have steadily charged its advocates with seeking the social equality of the negroes in the Southern States, and have as steadily been met by a denial of the charge. Proofs of its truthfulness have been daily accumulating in the proceedings of the several conventions, that are and have been in session throughout the South, but none so full and convincing has been given, as was furnished in the proceedings of the Convention in session in this city on Saturday last.

The Young Men's Christian Association of this city, had invited Mr. David Macrae, a young Scotch author, who is visiting the South to make observations and gather information in regard to her institutions to be incorporated in a history, which he designs writing upon his return to Scotland, to deliver a reading for the benefit of the poor of our city. Mr. Macrae very kindly consenting, application was made to the Convention for the use of the Commons Hall for the reading. Galloway, a negro delegate from New Hanover county, promptly rose and stated that he should vote against granting the request, unless NEGROES WERE ADMITTED TO SEATS UPON THE SAME FLOOR AND WITH THE SAME PRIVILEGES AS THE WHITES. Messrs. Ashley and Abbott, who represent the negroes of New Hanover, made identically similar declarations, as did also Harris, the negro delegate from Wake.

Unwilling to accept a favor accompanied by terms so full of degradation and shame, the request was promptly withdrawn by the representative of the Association on the floor.

This act determines the purposes of the Radicals of this State. The actors are representative men in their party. Gen. Abbott was the President of the Radical Convention held in this City in September last, and it is rumored that he will become a candidate for the U. S. Senate. Mr. Ashley is the Superintendent of Freedmen's Schools in the Wilmington District, and, until the destruction of his office by fire on Thursday night last, was the Editor of the Wilmington Post, the organ of the party in the Cape Fear section. Galloway and Harris are pre-eminently the representatives of their race—Galloway, representing the City of Wilmington and County of New Hanover, and Harris, representing this City and the County of Wake. Their conduct in this matter is, therefore, significant as indicating what the negroes of North Carolina and their allies desire and intend, in case of success.

We ask the white men of North-Carolina to read the proceedings for themselves and see the infamously dark and devilish purposes which animate the breasts of these political bankrupts and mountbanks. They demand—Galloway and Harris, speaking for their race, demand that negroes shall be allowed to visit places of amusement, frequented by your wives, your mothers, your daughters, and your sisters, and that they be treated with the same courtesy and respect as the Ladies of North Carolina are accustomed to receive. They demand that greasy, dirty wenches shall ride in the same cars, and eat at the same hotel tables with them; that they shall occupy seats side by side with those most dear to you in theatres—aye, even in the temples of Almighty God. They demand that their children shall attend the same schools with yours, or else that you shall be debarred any benefit from the funds devoted to the purposes of education in the State.

Grant these things, and what will—what must follow? They will then demand admittance to your parlors, to be received as inmates of your dwellings, and the consummation of the matter will be, a demand for the hands of the daughters of white men in marriage.

Are you prepared for these things, white men of North Carolina? If not, and from our hearts we believe not—then rise in your might and crush this demon spirit in its infancy. Stand firm for the purity, the dignity and the traditions of your race, and all will be well.

THE purpose of Congress, in the matter of reconstruction, was indicated, we believe, in the bill introduced in the Senate on Wednesday last by Senator Sherman. The States of the South are to be reconstructed upon a radical basis in time for participation in the Presidential campaign, regardless of the results of the elections that may be held for the ratification or rejection of the constitutions, prepared, or in process of preparation, by the conventions that have been or are now in session.

The people of Alabama, acting in the strictest accordance with the requirements of the law, have defeated the constitution prepared for their governance by a majority exceeding fifteen thousand. They did this by the adoption of the non-action policy. The white men of the State took no part in the election, further than by the appointment of challengers to prevent illegal voting, hoping to to secure the defeat of the constitution by depriving it of the majority of the registered votes of the State as required by the reconstruction acts. They succeeded. The result did not suit either the necessities or wishes of the Radical party, and hence the introduction of Mr. Sherman's bill.

These things are full of warning to us in North Carolina. There can be, after this exhibition of bad faith, but one course open for our adoption. We must defeat the constitution, soon to be submitted to us, by an open, earnest, honest fight—by polling against it a majority of the registered votes of the State. With proper effort it can be done. If we value life, liberty or happiness, it must be done. Let us prepare, at once, for the work.

MEN who have wives and daughters and who love them: men who have mothers and sisters and who love them—white men—gentlemen of North Carolina, in this city, in a Convention called against your wishes but paid for by your toil, on yesterday a proposition was deliberately made to degrade them by an association, which God and nature abhor. Let those who value the character and the purity of our society, treasure this thing, and visit the retribution of white men, at the polls, upon its infamous projectors.

[TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY.]

NIGHT SESSION.

FRIDAY, Feb. 14, 1868.

The Convention called to order at 7½ o'clock.

The debate on the 4th, 5th and 6th sections was resumed. The following are the sections:

SEC. 4. That this State shall ever remain a member of the American Union; that the people thereof are part of the American nation; that there is no right on the part of this State to secede, and that all attempts, from whatever source or upon whatever pretext, to dissolve said Union, or to sever said nation, ought to be resisted with the whole power of the State.

SEC. 5. That every citizen of this State owes paramount allegiance to the Constitution and government of the United States, and that no law or ordinance of the State, in contravention or subversion thereof, can have any binding force.

SEC. 6. To maintain the honor and good faith of the State untarnished, the public debt regularly contracted before and since the rebellion shall be regarded as inviolable and never questioned; but the State shall never assume or pay any debt or obligation, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave.

The Convention, after considerable debate, adjourned.

[TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY.]

SATURDAY, Feb. 15th, 1868.

The cages were thrown open, and the varmints trotted out at the usual hour.

The North Carolinian was read, approved, and sent to "de archives."

RESOLUTION, ORDINANCES, &C.

Mr. Forkner, a resolution raising a committee on adjournment, stating their opinion as to when the Konvenshun would adjourn sine die.

[Just when Pacha Canby gives the order, Mr. F.]

Mr. Forkner moved to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution, which motion not prevailing, the resolution lies over.

CALENDAR.

The ordinance of Mr. Welker [another pious, penitent Aminadab Sleek,] prohibiting the distillation of grain, was taken up. The vote on this motion was taken and resulted, yeas 26, noes 31—not a quorum voting.

Rich moved for a call of the house, and the Secretary—one Byrnes, formerly a "bummer" in Sherman's army, and lately a counter-jumper of Fayetteville—proceeded to so call.

A quorum being found present, Mr. Rich then moved to lay the whole subject on the table, and demanded the ayes and noes, which resulted, ayes 39; noes 55.

Mr. Colgrove moved to amend by inserting "November, 1868," for "January, 1869." Adopted.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the ordinance as amended, which was carried.

The Tourgee submitted a report from the Committee on Towns, Cities, &c.

Mr. Sweet, an ordinance appointing a collector of taxes for the city of Newbern, and recommended its passage.

The ordinance was so amended, as to allow any qualified voter of the said city to hold the office of said collector.

Mr. Sweet asked that the ordinance be immediately considered. He objected to the amendments reported by the committee.

Mr. Heaton, of Ohio, via Craven, hoped that the amendments attached would not interfere with the ordinance. The house accepted the report of the committee—the vote was taken, and the ordinance adopted as reported by the committee.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The 6th section of the report of the Committee on Preamble and Bill of Rights being the special order, was read and put before the house.

The Tourgee said he seemed to be "the big dog in the matter, [the Tourgee is mistaken—he's the under dog,] and he wished to say [i. e. bow-wow] a few words. He knew that full many a point had been carried full many a time upon an empty song.

[Tourgee invokes the Muse: "Harp of the North," etc., etc., and thus discourseth]:

Much had been said about repudiation; he would like to know what repudiation. His idea of repudiation was the denial of an honest personal obligation. In all the remarks made yesterday, but two gentlemen had raised the cry that repudiation was the object of some of the members. He was certain that the debt of the old State could not be legally imposed upon the new State, and he was certain that the people of this new State would thank God [and the Tourgee] to get rid of the old State bonds and the swamp lands.

It was a delusion to suppose that this old debt could be paid in 10 years. He would not yield to any man in honor for the State, but he had no homage to pay to a State whose institutions were beggared. The people of North Carolina were impoverished by war, and, by God, there is truth in the cry that we are on the crust of an extinct volcano. Should it meet the pleasure of the Convention to pass the 6th section, he would say there are none who would give it more cordial support than those who had opposed it.—[How the poor Tourgee backs from his position of yesterday.]

Mr. Jones, of Washington, said the argument had been so lengthy that he had hoped action would be taken when the subject should be brought up this morning. The gentleman from Guilford, [we beg pardon, the Tourgee, Mr. Jones!] seemed to make the Convention a marked era in his history. Does he suppose that he is the only man in North Carolina who is familiar with her institutions, her forms of religion, &c. There is nothing left, save honor, with which to erect a new empire. He would not be surprised if the gentleman had a new primer out before many months with the title, "A New Primer for the new State of North Carolina," [by the Tourgee, with a horrid lion as frontispiece.]

He adverted to the great loss of the State during the war, saying, though she had lost everything else, she still clung to and held immaculate her honor and her integrity. Mr. Jones held that the position of Tourgee and his followers tended towards repudiation. He alluded to the result of repudiation in Mississippi, and said that her honor had been tarnished. Virginia had said, "though poor, we will pay our honest obligations," and Virginia, said Mr. J., owes $40,000,000. Other States had said the same. Are we to permit our glorious old State of North Carolina to be behind her sisters. It has been well said, if you are dishonest nationally, you are so individually.

McDonald, the Chatham ass, made some silly remarks, that are not deemed worthy a place in our columns.

Laflin, of New York, via Pitt county, said he had been a citizen of North Carolina two years, and was unwilling to do anything that would stain the integrity of the State.

Mr. Rodman understood the Tourgee, as saying he had no respect for Old North Carolina, or for the obligations incurred by her. Mr. R. contended that the existence of North Carolina as a State, could only be blotted out by those who had made it a State; and the ones who had made it a State were the people. He was in favor of a new era, but he did not want to see the pages in history containing her past career, torn from that book of record. The gentleman from Guilford, had said much about making North Carolina a new State. He (Mr. R.) supposed the Tourgee wanted to set her up as a new State, and date her commencement from the year one. What had been called the inevitable conflict between liberty and slavery was over, and the conflict now was the new era.

Mr. Heaton, of Ohio, thought that the subject had been fully discussed—the minds of the delegates here were made up, and he felt sure they would do nothing to stain the honor and integrity of the State. To pass an act of repudiation, would be an admission of poverty on the part of the State. Mr. H. referred to what had been placed in the Bill of Rights by other States in framing their constitutions. As to whether this State was in existence or not, he thought that question had been fully answered by the gentlemen from Beaufort and Washington. Mr. H. contended that no State had ever ceased to be a part of the general government. He quoted several decisions made by Judges of Supreme Courts, and said that a State could not escape its moral obligations. In conclusion, he said that as this State had been the first to mark out the destiny of this country, he hoped she would not be the first to turn aside from the honor and integrity of the State founded by our fathers. Mr. H. called for the previous question.

The yeas and noes being demanded, were called, and resulted—yeas, 77; noes, 9.

A communication was received from the Young Men's Christian Association, asking the use of the Commons Hall for Mr. Macrae to deliver a lecture for the benefit of the poor.

Abbott, of New Hampshire, Ashley, of Buzzard's Bay, Mass., and Harris, Galloway and the other niggers of the Menagerie, opposed, unless there was an explicit, unequivocal, positive understanding that white folks and niggers, males and females respectively, were allowed admission to the Hall promiscuously.

Abbott thought that "wherever a respectable white man or his wife or children, properly attired and behaved, could go, there should colored ladies and gentlemen be permitted to enter."

Ashley, Harris and Galloway concurred with Abbott. [Thus is political equality succeeded by demands for social equality—thus is "the bottom rail" lifting to the top.]

The demand of these licentious delegates were so revolting to the members of the Young Men's Christian Association, that they promptly withdrew their request.

Sec. 10—Adopted.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend by adding to the 11th section a provision that would keep prisoners from being required to pay costs, jail, or necessary witness fees, unless found guilty.—Amendment adopted, and section as amended, carried.

Sec. 12—Adopted.
Sec. 13—Adopted.
Sec. 14—Adopted.
Sec. 15—Adopted.

Mr. Heaton moved to insert a new section after section 15, as follows: "There shall be no imprisonment for debt in this State, unless in cases of fraud."

The President suggested it come as a tail to 15th section.

Mr. H. said he wanted it a separate section, and no tail about it. The new section was then adopted as section 16th.

Sec. 17—Adopted.
Sec. 18—Adopted.

The 19th section reads, "the freedom of the press is one of the great bulwarks of liberty, and therefore ought never to be restrained."

Mr. Rodman moved to amend by adding, "but the General Assembly may have power to pass laws to prevent its abuses."

Mr. Nicholson moved to amend further by adding, "but every individual shall be held responsible for an abuse of the same." The vote being put on Mr. N.'s amendment, resulted in the affirmative, and the section as amended was then read and adopted.

Section 20, which provides that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended in this State, Mr. Rodman moved to strike out, which motion was lost, and the section adopted.

Mr. Abbott moved to insert between 20 and 21, a section providing that no property qualification will be required in holding office, as follows:

"As political rights and privileges are not dependent upon or modified by property, therefore no property qualification ought to afford the right to vote or hold office"—

And Mr. Ashley moved to amend by striking out the word "is" in the 3d line and inserting "are," which motion prevailed, and the section was adopted as amended.

Sections 31, 32 and 33 were adopted.

Mr. Durham moved to insert a new section, as follows:

"The Caucasian and African races are distinct by nature and color, therefore all intermarriages between the Caucassian or white race and the African or black race are forever prohibited."

On the proposition, Mr. Durham demanded the yeas and nays. The first name on the roll was called, when a further call was objected to by some of the members, on the ground that the yeas and nays had not been announced. Right here considerable fillibustering was carried on, after which the house refused to have the yeas and nays.

Mr. Durham contended that as the call had been commenced, it was proper it should be continued, he knew gentlemen were trying to dodge the issue, and it could not be denied.

Mr. Sweet moved the proposition be laid on the table.

On this Mr. Durham called for the yeas and nays.

McDonald, of Chatham, said he wanted members to keep their seats—they were leaving, evidently trying to dodge the question. He intended to face the music, and he wanted others to do the same.

The yeas and nays were refused by the house, and Mr. Durham said he was not surprised at a refusal, because gentlemen wished to dodge the question. He had offered an additional section to the Bill of Rights, and any motion, if carried, to lay on the table, would take the whole matter with it.

Mr. Heaton could not so understand.

Mr. Durham said that any man acquainted with parliamentary fisages would so decide. He knew the proposition would not be accepted, but he offered it to test the sense of the house, and gentlemen had filibustered and dodged the question.

After much filibustering, the Chair decided otherwise, and the motion to lay on the table was of course carried.

[All of which goes to show conclusively,—beyond the faintest shadow of a doubt, that these negro reconstructionists will be satisfied with nothing less than equality in the bridal chamber.

The section was then adopted, and the mongrels dispersed to their cages, there to remain until the regular hour of performance on Monday morning next.

COMPOSITION OF THE CONVENTIONS.—In Virginia 25 out of 105 delegates to the Constitutional Convention, or less than one-fourth, are colored men. In North Carolina 13 out of 120 delegates, or less than one ninth, are colored. In Mississippi 12 out of 128. In Louisiana the blacks have a majority of 10. In Florida 20 out of 80 are colored. In Georgia 15 out of 195, or less than one-eleventh, are colored. In Alabama 18 are colored, about one-fifth of the whole body. In Arkansas 5 out of 78 are colored. In South Carolina the two races are about equal in the Convention. In Texas the delegates have not yet been chosen.

The power of frozen water is singularly illustrated in a lecture on heat and cold, delivered by Professor Tyndall before the Royal Institution of Great Britain. Among his experiments, an ordinary bombshell was filled with water, securely plugged, and then placed in a bucket filled with pounded ice and salt. In about half an hour the bombshell was burst into fragments by the mere freezing of the confined water.

The Canvass in New Hampshire is being conducted with great energy by both parties. Previous to 1853 the democracy generally carried New Hampshire. Since March, 1855, they have been annually defeated, and it would indicate a remarkable change of political opinion if the tide which has so long set in one direction should be in any degree turned backward.

TUNNEL UNDER THE NIAGARA RIVER.—The project is revived to tunnel the Niagara river at the shortest crossing between Fort Erie and the American side. The cost, it is said, will be far less than the estimated cost of a bridge at the same location.

CAR LIGHTING AND LOCKING.—A bill has been redorted in the Pennsylvania Legislature prohibiting the use of oil or explosive fluids for lighting purposes in railroad cars; also against the practice of locking the doors of cars when traveling.

Florida Convention.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 15.

Twenty-nine delegates were in the Convention to-day. A large crowd of negroes collected in the streets before the Convention met. By request of Gov. Walker, the military gave a guard for the Convention to prevent violence. No interference was offered. The Convention adopted articles, with amendments, providing that the Governor and Lieut. Governor shall be elected for a term of four years. Other State officers are to be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. County Commissioners are elected. A caucus was held at noon by the majority, which one of the minority attended, and proposed measures of conciliation. Not agreed to. Two of the minority have joined the body in session.

A mass meeting of negroes was held this evening in the capitol square, and was addressed by negroes and white speakers of the Billings faction. The speakers seemed to have given up the struggle for the mastery of the Convention, and propose to try the issue at the ballot box.

A New Registration in Virginia.

RICHMOND, Feb. 15.

Gen. Schofield issued several orders to-day concerning registration. One provides for a new registration in Richmond, on the 2nd of March. Another provides, where voters in the State have changed their places of residence that they may register at their new residence. Another is for the guidance of Registrars; and directs that where persons have held United States offices, and afterwards voted voluntarily for secession, they are disfranchised. The holding of a United States office is defined as an office held by an appointee of the President of Courts of law, or of heads of departments. Persons who held town or country offices, created for the administration of justice, are disfranchised, but their deputies are not. Pardon by the President does not remove disfranchisement.

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee, are respectfully requested to meet in this city on Friday, the 28th inst., at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is much desired.

By order of the

CHAIRMAN.

MISCEGENATION.

Mr. Durham, of Cleveland, on yesterday proposed an additional clause to the Bill of Rights then under discussion and adoption, prohibiting intermarriage between the white and black, or Caucassian and Negro races at the South.

The proposition met with no favor whatever among black and white Republicans, but, on the contrary, created the most intense disgust among the loyal of all colors.

Mr. Durham claimed for it the attention of the Convention, and demanded the ayes and noes on his amendment to the Bill of Rights.

The amendment was not acted upon at all, but simply gerrymandered out of the House, and thus has the Convention declared itself unequivocally in favor of social as well as political equality among the races.

We are not surprised at the fact, for it is what we have taught, but the disclosure is a little in advance of what we had expected, in the face of the frequent assertions of loyal delegates that social equality with the black man was not in their programme.

Republicans may deny it, as they doubtless will, but they cannot escape the fact that this Convention is, so far as loyal, almost unanimously in favor of the amalgamation of the races, from no other motive, however, than that of self-interest and improvement.

We shall protest against it We do so in the interest of the black race, opposed as we are to anything that must so injuriously effect the blood of the negro. While we are ready to admit that miscegenation will work an improvement in the offspring of that class who so earnestly advocate it, we deem it our duty to implore them as men of reason, to have some regard for the future well-being of those at whose expense they propose to benefit themselves.

A QUESTION FOR PARLIAMENTARIANS.

The action of the Convention yesterday in regard to the amendment prohibiting intermarriage of races is open to criticism, and we submit (merely for information, of course,) whether such action was entirely parliamentary?

The amendment was offered as a separate clause to the Bill of Rights, to come in after article "thirty-three," which had just been adopted. The yeas and nays were demanded, and the clerk proceeded to call the roll, in which he was stopped.

It was then moved to lay the amendment on the table. Mr. Durham insisted that if the amendment went on the table it carried the entire Bill of Rights with it.

To this delegates replied, that the Bill of Rights could be called up again. Mr. Durham then insisted that if so, the amendment would also come up. Here the Convention discovered that it was in a position requiring nerve, when Mr. President Cowles determined to bring matters to a close. He thereupon put the motion to lay on the table, which was carried, and then proceeded to the consideration of the remaining article in the Bill of Rights, upon the adoption of which the Convention adjourned.

Was such a flagrant violation of parliamentary rules, such gerrymandering ever heard of before the assembling of this "world's fair" at the State Capital of North Carolina?

THE DELEGATE FROM CHATHAM.

We were glad to see our friend, radical John A. McDonald, of Chatham, take such a radical stand yesterday against the intermarriage of races.

When the ayes and noes were called for, Mr. McDonald insisted that they be given, declaring, at the same time, his intention to vote for the amendment of Mr. Durham, prohibiting intermarriage between the races in North Carolina.

Mr. McDonald is, in this instance at least, placing himself right before his constituents of Chatham.

But we would like to ask friend John a question. If, as he admits, the negro is, by nature, so inferior to the white man as to prohibit his intermarriage with the white race, with what reason does he insist on political affiliation? And was not Governor Graham right when he said, in the matter of suffrage, the line of discrimination should be in favor of the lighter color?

POLITICAL DISABILITIES.

The New York Times says that the House Reconstruction Committee has determined to report a bill removing the disabilities from some fifty or sixty persons prominently connected with the Confederate cause. Among the names mentioned from this State, in addition to Mr. Holden's, we find the following: Hons. W. N. H. Smith and Alfred Dockery, Gen. Rufus Barringer, Victor C. Barringer, Esq., and Calvin J. Rogers, Esq., of this County. These gentlemen obtain the recommendation for Congressional favor because of "efficient aid in reconstruction."

CITY AND STATE.

Slang.

The Commons Hall in the State House of North Carolina is just now the temple of slang.

The latest was the suggestion of Mr. President Cowles to "let's hitch" a clause of the bill of rights to "the tail" of another article.

As among some of the most current of modern parliamentary terms used here, we present the following: "Ole fel," "lame duck," "you bet," "fair hack," "to hum," "git e-out," "how's that," "stick up," "played out," "skedaddle," "swamped," "sucked in," "hard up," "nary red," "can't see it," "nuff ced," "hunkadory," "bully for you," "heavy on Snyder," "say mistur," "cute," "I guess," "mare's nest," "fiddle-faddle," "to bag," "feather yer nest," "finger in the pie," "stir yer stumps," "got his foot in it," "waggle like a parched pea," "pitch into," "have a fling at," "the wrong sow by the ear," "tail in a split stick," "rule the roast," "beat about the bush," "prig," "all cry and no wool," "cantankerous," "hang up yer fiddle," "make no bones," "vamose the ranche," "clean as a whistle," "like death to a dead dog," or "a sore eyed kitten to a pan of milk," "loon," "lout," "skipjack," "padrock," "unlicked cub," "split the difference," "go the whole hog," "take the shine out," "spunk," "dead cock in the pit," "take the bull by the horns," "kick the bucket," "dead as a nit," "nab," "come down a peg" or "a button hole lower," "like a bee in a tar bucket," "as long as there's a pea in the dish," "in a horn," "chawed," "the rub," "he's on it," "in the cool."

Our space forbids a more extended list of this rich collection at present.

The Readings Last Night.

We attended the Readings of Mr. David Macrae, of Scotland, given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association in the Senate chamber last evening, and were most delightfully entertained throughout.

The selections were from Mr. Macrae's own works illustrative of Scottish life and character, and the effective points and passages were most admirably rendered by the accomplished elocutionist.

Mr. Macrae has a full, rich voice, which is beautifully and particularly adapted to the expression of the various emotions and passions of the human breast.

The "Leap Year Wooing" riveted the special attention of his very select and appreciative audience, and elicited much applause. Apropos to the above, Mr. Macrae failed, we believe, to announce to the ladies that this was Leap Year, and that they had therefore, the right to ask gentleman to go anywhere, even on a visit to the state of matrimony, with the addttional privilege of settling the bills.

Such is the fact nevertheless, and there being a trio of celibates in this establishment, we beg the ladies to take notice.

A Relic of the Late War.

We learn that on Thursday last, while a large log was being sawed at the mills of Mr. O. G. Parsley, a sudden commotion was caused and the log seen to fly off of the car on which it was bound, and the saw broken and entirely ruined. The engine was stopped in all possible haste, and an examination made as to the cause of this derangement. Just then the engineer ran up from the room below with a large twenty-four pounder solid shot, which he asserted had dropped down from the saws. It was found that this shot had been imbedded in the heart of the log which was being sawed, without any indications of this fact on the outside. The log was some fifteen or twenty inches in diameter, and is thought to have come from about Averysboro'. The bark had entirely grown over the place where the shot entered, and to all appearances the log was solid all through. This, we think, is the most remarkable fact of the character we have ever heard.—Wil. Journal.

Historic.

During the discussion of the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th sections of the Bill of Rights, in the Konvenshun, on Friday, Mr. Heaton, spread-eagle of Ohio, via Craven county, while indulging one of those grandiloquent rhetoric flights characteristic of his sublimated eagle-ship, went off at a tangent to inform "ye animals" that John Wilkes Booth, "a worthy type of the boasted Southern Chivalry, crept up behind the Late Lamented, and shot him in the rear."

This is certainly a new version of "the taking off" of "the Great Martyr," and is only equalled by the following inscription that we saw on a piece of Dutch statuary representing the last act in the drama of the "rail splitter":

"Oh, Boozh, oh Boozh, vot hasht dou dun!
Dou hasht shooted ded de grate Lin-kun!
You hid pehind a bunch of thistle,
An shooted him ded mit a pig horse pistil."

Sorrowful Scene.

The spectacle presented in the Convention yesterday, by the straining after respectability, on the part of certain white delegates in the discussion on intermarriage, was a sorrowful scene.

Behind the compliment which the discussion conveyed to the negro race, lurked a danger which we warn that race to shun.

In referring to the mulattoes of the country, it is the custom of men of the ilk of the pilgrim father, to charge that the best blood of the chivalric South flows through their veins. This charge has at length attained its full significance, and this loyal body, known as the Convention of North Carolina, will favor no legislation prohibiting its members forming an alliance with the best blood of the country.

That's what's the matter.

Eclipse of the Sun.

Astronomers inform us that an eclipse of the sun will occur on the 22nd inst. It will not be visible, however, except in Africa, and we very much regret that many citizens of that loyal province will not be there to witness the demonstration, they being busily engaged in this City on constitution making, and devouring the dead carcass of R. E. Bellion, now undergoing ventilation, post mortem examination and dissection in the State Capitol.

We should be glad to have the entire delegation of white and black Africans go en masse to see the eclipse, and, if possible, find such attractions as would induce a prolonged visit, if not a permanent stay in their native land.

Hung.

The notorious highwayman and murderer, Hicks, negro, was hung in Newbern on Friday last.

A negro preacher attended the murderer to the scaffold, and after a short prayer by the minister, Hicks warned all present to take warning by his fate, and never suffer themselves to be led astray, as he had been.

He was pronounced dead in twenty minutes after the trap fell.

Before his execution he confessed numerous crimes of some of which he had been previously suspected.

He was the party who burned the Goldsboro' News office in April, 1866.

Shocking Accident in Wilmington.

We learn from the Wilmington papers, that on the morning following the terrible conflagration in that city, the walls between some of the burnt buildings, being much injured by the action of fire and water, gave way, and fell to the ground, burying several persons, most of them negroes, under the ruins. Four bodies have already been recovered, and it is thought that there are several others still buried amid the mass of ruins.

The Journal and Star speak in the highest terms of the energy and zeal displayed by the firemen, both white and colored.

Election of City Officers.

The old board of Commissioners having been continued in authority by order of Gen. Canby held their first meeting at the Town Hall Saturday night, for the election of City officers, with the following result:

Chief Constable—E. E. Harris.
Assistant Constable—M. B. Barbee.
Clerk—J. Womble, Jr.
Treasurer—R. H. Battle, Sr.
Weigh-Master—Len. H. Adams.
Chief of Night Watch—Howell Moss.
Assistants—Marion Bryant and Tom Dancy.

Editorial Request.

We find in a Western paper the following "notice to the bellicose:"

"The fighting editor having gone into a pale decline, to save the expense of dumb bells, and cock tails to stimulate early morning walks, the aggrieved will oblige by calling before breakfast."

Our playful friends, the cheerful Convenshuners, will please take a hint from the above, and seek early interviews.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well, Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great dem

FERNANDO WOOD.

The stranger entering the House gallery sees to the right of the Speaker, a few seats off, a gentleman whose personal appearance at once attracts inquiry as to name and antecedents. He sits most of the time immovable as a statue, unobservant of what is going on about him, entirely uninterested in the proceedings, and apparently bending all his energies on the work of keeping his head thrown back, his arms folded across his breast, and his eyes intently fixed on vacancy. If he does occasionally relax, it is only to brush the shining velvet of his closely buttoned coat with one hand, or to comb the heaviest and whitest moustache in the House with the other. This is Fernando Wood, and he is but a poor judge of character who, knowing Fernando by reputation, could not point him out after a brief survey of the members among whom he sits. That countenance, so full of refined hypocrisy and sublimated impudence, could belong to nobody else if it tried.

The little round head, covered with gray hair, always carefully brushed; the forehead "villainously low," arching a couple of eyes which tell the whole story of their owner's life, and the big white moustache which half converts the American citizen into the distinguished foreigner—all combine to spell out Fernando Wood in the alphabet of physiogomy. He seldom speaks, but when he does he is not at a loss for words or ideas to express himself. His manner is always remarkably cool and self-possessed. This was especially noticeable day before yesterday, when he was interrupted and called to order for applying the word "infamous" to the proceedings of the House. He was the least excited of any on the floor, or so appeared from the gallery; and when he was told he could not proceed further with his speech, he took his seat with a marblelized indifference which astonished all who witnessed it. With the same degree of frigidity and nonchalance he took the reprimand of the speaker, and then retired again to his seat, threw his head slightly back, brushed his velvet coat collar with one hand, stroked his moustache with the other, and then placed both arms in guard across his breast, as if to keep out all intruders upon the sanctity within. What a character for Dickens, who, we are told, is taking notes for another Martin Chuzzlewit. A far better study for the great novelist than Pecksniff or Ralph Nickleby, or in fact any other production of his brain to which the reading world has yet been treated.—Before Dickens leaves the country, let somebody see to it that Fernando gives him a sitting.

A Sensible and Patriotic Letter—An Old-Line Whig to the Democratic Party.

The political history of this country does not furnish an individual instance of a more consistent, energetic, untiring and life-long old-line Whig than the Hon. Walter Brooke, of Mississippi. During the existence of the Whig party, he was a justly distinguished leader in its councils, and since its demise there has been no more sincere mourner over its disintegration. Here is what he says in a recent letter:

VICKSBURG, Jan. 14, 1868.

* * * * *

"Now is the time. When such life-long Whig papers as the National Inteligencer, the Boston Courier, the Louisville Journal and New York Express can come out bravely and openly under the Democratic flag, why should we hesitate? It is the Democratic party that is now fighting our battles at the North, or that can fight them with any prospect of success. I am well aware that it never has been your attention to form a permanent party under the name of the Constitutional Union Party, yet such is the belief of a great many, and it is due to yourself, as well as the country, that the matter should be at once definiiely understood. * * * I see no reason for delay. We have to make the move, and the present time is as auspicious as any. The Democratic party is coeval with the Government; it is and ever has been a States rights party, and we can now appreciate the excellence of its creed.

Regarding the Convention as one merely representing the Conservative elements of the State it is all well enough, but as long as the idea prevails that it is held for the purpose of framing and perpetuating a new party, it will work mischief.

Very truly yours,

W. BROOKE.

The Arab's Proof.

Some years ago a Frenchman, who, like many other of his countrymen had won a high rank among men of science, yet denied the God who is the author of all science, was crossing the Great Sahara in company with an Arab guide.

He noticed, with a sneer, that at certain times his guide whatever obstacle might arise, put them all aside, and kneeled on the burning sand.

Day after day passed, and the Arab never failed, till at last, one evening, the philosopher, when he rose from his knees, asked him, with a contemptuous smile, "How do you know there is a God?"

The guide fixed his burning eye on the scoffer for a moment in wonder, and then said, solemnly, "How do I know that a man and a camel passed my tent last night in the darkness? Was it not by the print of his foot in the sand? Even so," and he pointed to the sun, whose last rays were fading over the lonely desert, "that footprint is not that of man."

Trials of Editing.

The editor of the Western Recorder relates the following:

A plain brother was very anxious to write for the Recorder—the paper of which at the time Dr. Waller had charge—had often expressed his desire, without much encouragement from the doctor, but was finally told to write; and the article should appear. He wrote, but said the doctor, "such a mess." But supposing that one effort would satisfy his correspondent, he put the article in shape, gave it a point, thought, and connection, and the next week the brother saw it under his signature. He came to the editor under a glow of delight, and said, "Why, Brother Waller, I did not know I could write so well; I must write again."

Whiskey Wit.

A wayfarer asked a lounger whom he met on a corner, "What place is that?" The lounger replied, "Oh, that is a rum mill!" Again asked the wayfarer, "What do they grind there?" But now the lounger's patience was exhausted, and he replied sourly and sulkily: "I dunno; Congressmen, I s'pose." The wayfarer was squelched, but muttered as he turned away, "These must be the mills of the gods which we read of, for they grind exceedingly small."

During a recent performance of 'Romeo and Julie',' at Marblehead, Mass., the fair Juliet's question in her soliloquy, before taking the sleeping draught: 'What if this mixture does not work well?' was answered by an urchin in the pit, 'Then take a dose of pills.' The effect upon the audience can be imagined.

For seven weeks the Springfield "Leader" kept the following conspicuously at the head of its local column:

"Boy wanted at this office."

A few days since, the editor's wife presented him with a boy, which, in a highly significant way, shows the value of advertising.

An old compositor writes a letter to the New York Tribune to say that the poem "Rock Me to Sleep, Mother," was written by Edward Young, Lexington, Ga., in 1859; that Mr. Young was an eccentric blacksmith or wayward carriage-maker; and he does not think that Mr. Young could possibly have plagiarized the poem.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skilful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address G. W. DEEMS, tf 28 Calhoun street, Baltimore, Md.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded. C. BILLUPS.
